AGENDA ITEM #: 3

BACKGROUND: The City solicited bids for property and liability insurance through the MITN online bid system this year. Approximately 100 companies received notice of the invitation to bid on March 15, 2010 and 8 companies downloaded the entire bid package. On May 4, 2010 we received two bids one from our existing agent Ibex Insurance Agency representing Michigan Municipal Risk Management Association and one from Arthur J. Gallagher Company. We hired an independent insurance consulting firm named Pointe Counseling Services, LLC to analyze the bids and make a recommendation to us. Attached is their analysis and the invitation to bid. The actual bid responses have been copied to PDF files and e-mailed to you.

RECOMMENDED

ACTION: Pointe Counseling Services and City Administration recommend that we retain Ibex Insurance Agency and Michigan Municipal Risk Management Authority for property and liability insurance.

Mr. Tim Haney
City of St. Clair Shores
27600 Jefferson Circle Drive
St. Clair Shores, MI. 48081-2093

Dear Mr. Haney:

Pointe Counseling Services (PCS) entered into this insurance counseling engagement to provide the following specific services:

- i. Evaluate Two (2) bid proposals and subsequent policies for conformity with RFP and appropriately advise client.
- ii. Make recommendations to client as to the acceptability of proposals and recommend contract awards based on bids.

To provide these services, it was first necessary to review, interpret and quantify the undated "Invitation to Bid For Property and Liability Insurance". Our first observation of this request for proposal (RFP) was that it appears to be based completely on the current scope and limits of coverage including unique deductibles of the incumbent bidder's coverage.

The next phase of our analysis dealt with the required qualifications of the two bidders as published in the first paragraph of the RFP. This phase was followed by a detailed review of the coverage forms and limits proposed for compliance with the RFP requirements. In addition, PCS attempted to analyze the alternative risk financing techniques of the two proposals and the administrative and financial consequences of each. This was difficult due to the less than precise description of one proposal. We found that we had to make some assumptions in lieu of meeting with the bidder for a more concise explanation.

From the analysis, we provide the following information for your review and upon which we have made our qualified recommendation.

Qualifications

The RFP indicates that St. Clair Shores would accept bids from "Michigan licensed, qualified agents, insurance carriers or other recognized and authorized facilities..." Neither proposal satisfies this requirement completely. For example, self insured groups are not "licensed" nor admitted carriers in Michigan. They are regulated by the state's Office of Financial and Insurance Regulation (OFIR), but do not participate in the state's insolvency fund. The other bidder is proposing coverage through two carriers who are "non-admitted" in Michigan, likewise not meeting your requirements

Coverage

Property

Both bidders complied with the RFP and in fact exceeded the limited requirements with very broad coverage. Each included varying additional coverage that the other did not. However, MMRMA exactly meets the unique deductible requirements while the Chubb proposal has a straight $5,000 deductible. Both included what is traditionally called inland marine and boiler and machinery (equipment breakdown) coverage. However, Chubb provides limits in addition to the property limits and provides "Green technology" coverage for buildings.

Cyber Coverage

Neither proposal included this important coverage for both 1st and 3rd party losses related to computer operations and possible breach of those systems.

Liability

Both proposals satisfied the required limits stipulated in the bid specifications. However, the specifications mandated the coverage be on an occurrence form. The proposal submitted by MMRMA complied in total with this requirement. The Gallagher proposal listed a "claims-made" form for the Commercial General Liability (CGL).

The difference between the two forms lies in the "trigger", or which policy responds to a particular claim. With the "occurrence" form, the policy that was in force at the time the occurrence took place will respond. In contrast, the policy that is in effect when the claim is made will be the one that responds with the "claims-made" form.

A concern of the "claims-made" form is securing coverage for occurrences which took place during a covered period, but are not reported until after the policy period. According to the Gallagher proposal, coverage for such claims can be purchased at an additional charge of 100% of the CGL premium.

Crime

The crime insurance protection proposed by MMRMA meets the requirements of the RFP. Although no employees are specifically excluded, the Fidelity and Faithful Performance coverage is provided but not through the use of specific position bonds.

The coverage proposed by Gallagher provides for most of the Fidelity coverage specified by the RFP including money and securities. However, the employee dishonesty coverage proposed specifically excludes loss caused by a treasurer or tax collector and no coverage for Faithful Performance is proposed either through an insurance endorsement or through a bond. The deductible proposed for all crime coverage is $10,000.

Public Entity Liability

Both proposals satisfied the required limits stipulated in the bid specifications.

Law Enforcement Liability

Both proposals satisfied the required limits stipulated in the bid specifications.

Automobile

The automobile liability, Michigan No-Fault, and vehicle physical damage coverages proposed by MMRMA meets all the requirements of the RFP. The applicable limits, deductibles and SIR are exactly as specified.

The automobile coverage proposed by Gallagher is not completely compliant with the RFP. The proposed Deductible/SIR applicable to Auto Physical Damage for ACV vehicles is $25,000 and the Deductible/SIR applicable to Auto Physical Damage for Stated Value Vehicles is $50,000.

Risk Financing Techniques

In reviewing the proposals, we had to assume that the Gallagher (AJG) proposal does not include the administration of a loss fund on your behalf nor that a loss fund is required as their proposal was silent to that point. Keep in mind that a loss fund is solely maintained in anticipation of claims cost less than your retention, this is simply a matter of who controls these funds, either way the funds will be used. In addition, MMRMA is offering "Stop Loss Coverage" to limit the maximum claim payments which accumulate because of your retention from the loss fund to $600,000 annually. There is no Cap on AJG's retention according to their proposal. Therefore the financing of risk and your expenditure boils down to the following:

	MMRMA	AJG
Insurance risk transfer cost	$345,461	$307,475*
"Stop Loss Coverage" Cost	23,745	Not Proposed
	<hr/> $369,206	$307,475
Estimated Net Asset distribution	$108,000	Not Applicable
Total Expenditure	<hr/> $261,206	$307,475

*Includes TPA estimated fee and Consulting Fee
